

10TH ANNUAL

JAMES JENSEN MEMORIAL RUN

Saturday, September 19, 2009

Join us for the 10th annual, James Jensen Memorial Run to raise funds for the education of seminary students at the Theological Seminary in Quito, Ecuador.

Our route takes us to Nashville, Indiana where we will stop for lunch at the Artist's Colony Inn. The ride ends, about 6 p.m., at OMS International in Greenwood.

Free coffee, juice and donuts at registration.
Free dinner at end of ride.

For more information contact Larry Jensen at 317-882-4208 or larry@jensen-designs.com or visit www.jensenmemorialrun.org.

Registration begins at 9:00 a.m.
Indianapolis First Church of the Nazarene
9401 E. 25th St. • Indianapolis, Indiana 46229

What's the Cost? There is no cost for the ride; however, a minimum donation of $30 per rider is suggested. 100% of your donation will go directly to the Scholarship Fund and is tax deductible. Bring money for your lunch.

Pre-register and Get a Free T-shirt.
Donate a minimum of $30 per rider, mail your check along with your registration form to the address listed below (so we receive them on or before September 5, 2009) and we will reserve your free T-shirt for pick-up during registration at the event.
